

Dear Education Student,

Interested in applying for the $2500 Languages in Teacher Education Scholarship? Concordia is able to nominate (1) education student for this scholarship. We hold an internal competition to select the best candidate. The successful candidate's application will be submitted to the Alberta Student Aid Scholarship Office.

Eligible applicants must complete and submit the attached application form. IN ADDITION, we ask the applicant to submit a one-page description of their language background including (but not limited to):

- First language/mother tongue
- Participation in immersion programs and location
- Language coursework taken at university or elsewhere
- Language exchange programs
- Why you want to teach languages

Applicants must show evidence of completing university level languages course credits. There's no need to submit transcripts as we will have access to those through your admissions file. The additional information you provide will assist us in the selection process.

Note: A student may only receive this scholarship once.

Submit your application in-person to Student & Enrolment Services (HA120). The deadline to apply is January 15, 2019. Faxed or emailed copies are not accepted.
