IV. OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1. Please describe in an essay of approximately 500 to 600 words, something about why you chose this field of study, your efforts to help finance your own education, participation in extracurricular activity pursuits* and your involvement in volunteering in your local or wider community.

* Activities can range from a team sport to an individual pursuit to something in the outdoors or the arts. The idea of this requirement is to demonstrate that you have at least some balance in your life and a certain level of activity although it does not have to be at a high or intense level.

2. Two letters of recommendation from individuals outside of your family. Each letter should be no more than one page and should have been written in the 2015 / 2016 school year. Letters of Reference are important to your application. References should be from someone who actually knows something about you and can give some indication of your character or ability. It is worthwhile to have an academic reference but also another one from someone like an employer, coach or pastor.

How did you first hear about the Saint John's Legacy Scholarship?

HINT: It is often beneficial to have someone else read through your application before you submit it. Someone reviewing your complete application will hopefully find any grammar or spelling mistakes as well as ensuring that you are indeed conveying a positive and clearly stated description of who you are and why you are requesting a scholarship.

*The scholarship program is only open to Canadian citizens or those with Canadian permanent resident status. A Canadian social insurance number is required if your application is successful.
