ACAC SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

“Ladies and Gentlemen: your admission to this ACAC event entitles you to enjoy athletics in an educational setting. You can show your sportsmanship by positively encouraging the student-athletes, respecting the decision of the coaches and officials and being considerate of other spectators. Remember good sports make good sport.”

To be Canada's premiere collegiate athletic conference by developing and inspiring leadership through excellence in academics, sport & citizenship

September 27th, 2016

Dear Conference Championship Participants,

As the ACAC Soccer Convenor I would like to welcome you to the "Show" for the 2016-2017 season. This is one of the great rewards of succeeding in a season long endeavour since it is no easy task to qualify for one of the premier sporting events in the Conference and indeed the country. Congratulations on your season success and I trust you will have a great experience this weekend. Make sure to take time to thank the countless volunteers that have been working to stage a successful Conference Championship.

I would like to extend my thanks to the Coaches, organizing committee and the fans for their continued support of the development of great young athletes. Without this group of people the tournament would not be as exciting as it is sure to be. Congratulations and have a great weekend.

Sincerely,

Greg Ryan

ACAC SOCCER COVENOR

Providing competitive collegiate sport experiences, promoting academic achievement and leadership in sport development in Canada.

Office of the President

October 2016

On behalf of the entire Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference (ACAC) membership, it's my pleasure to welcome everyone to the 2016-17 ACAC Women's Conference Soccer Championships. This event culminates a hard fought season of soccer in the premiere college athletic conference in Canada, with the best games of the year to come!

Collectively the 17-member institutions of the ACAC are committed to creating the best possible sport learning experience for our student-athletes. Through leadership, innovation, sustainability, and advocacy, the ACAC strives to be a leader of sport development in Canada. The excellence on display at this ACAC Soccer Championship is evidence that the ACAC is meeting its objectives.

I wish our competing student-athletes the best of luck in their ambition to earn an ACAC Championship and represent their institution and our Conference at the CCAA National Championships later this month. A sincere thank you is extended to our devoted fans and spectators in attendance, for your enthusiastic and positive support. Lastly, I extend my gratitude to the sponsors, corporate partners and Alberta government representatives who back our student athletes with their product and financial contributions.

It's well understood that the hosting of a conference championship requires a great deal of time, effort and resources from the people involved at the host institution. Thanks to Concordia University of Edmonton for stepping forward to host this event. I have every confidence that regardless of wins or losses, this event will be memorable for all participants and spectators.

Best of luck to all participating student-athletes, coaches and teams!

Bob Murray
President, ACAC

BOB MURRAY
ACAC PRESIDENT

THUNDER ATHLETICS CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY OF EDMONTON

On behalf of the Concordia University of Edmonton Thunder, we would like to welcome all the athletes, coaches, award winners and other participants to the 2016 ACAC Women's Soccer Championships. Your teams should be congratulated for an outstanding season, and earning the right to compete for a conference championship banner this weekend is considered a tremendous achievement. We applaud each of you for your dedication, skill, and determination that place you among the elite list of collegiate athletes in Canada. As your championship hosts, we hope that you team will enjoy a great weekend of competition, camaraderie, and that you perform to the best of your abilities.

I would like to extend a very special thank you to our outstanding corporate partners of this event, and for their continued support of Thunder Athletics. These championships would not be possible without your generous support.

We look forward to hosting all of you in Edmonton this week, and will work extremely hard to ensure that your experience here will be memorable. Good luck to in the Championships this weekend.

Joel Mrak
*Athletics Director,
Concordia University of Edmonton*

Concordia University of Edmonton (CUE) has played an important role in Alberta's educational history since 1921. In 1987, CUE began awarding undergraduate degrees in the arts and sciences. Today, CUE offers over 45 majors and minors in the fields of Arts, Science, and Management; two after-degree programs; three masters degrees; and several graduate certificates and diplomas.

CUE's Thunder Athletics fosters the physical and mental well-being of student athletes, promoting the values of fair play and ethical conduct and encouraging participants to achieve their personal best in both athletics and academics.
