

Presenting the 2016-17 ACAC Men's Basketball All-Conference Teams

MEDICINE HAT (March 1, 2017) – The Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference (ACAC) is pleased to announce the student-athletes who have been selected by the Conference Coaches to the 2016-17 Men's Basketball All-Conference Teams. These awards were presented at the 2017 ACAC Men's Basketball Championship banquet on March 1st, 2017 in Medicine Hat, Alta. hosted by the Medicine Hat College Rattlers.

Men's North First All-Conference Team	Men's South First All-Conference Team
Artavis Holiday, Lakeland College Jackson Jacob, NAIT Brett Jakubec, Concordia University of Edmonton Kenny Johnson, Grande Prairie Regional College Cameron Vilcsak, University of Alberta, Augustana	Guilherme Carabagiale Fuck (foo-key), Medicine Hat College Chris Maughan, Lethbridge College Cory Richardson, Lethbridge College John Smith, SAIT Ian Tevis, Red Deer College
Men's North Second All-Conference Team	Men's South Second All-Conference Team
Mitch Burnett, The King's University Sebastian Cava, NAIT Rami Ghanem, Keyano College Ryan McLaren, Concordia University of Edmonton Jonatas Michel, Keyano College	Salissou Abdoukader, Medicine Hat College Matt Matear, Red Deer College Pietro Oliveira de Andrade, Medicine Hat College Kyler Shula, Ambrose University Shayne Stumpf, Red Deer College

– 30 –

About the ACAC: The ACAC is the governing body for intercollegiate athletics in Alberta. Its mission is to provide competitive collegiate sport experiences, promote academic achievement and be a leader of sport development in Canada.

For more information on the ACAC, please visit our website: www.acac.ab.ca

For additional information, contact:

Mark Kosak
 ACAC Chief Executive Officer
 403-875-7329
markk@acac.ab.ca

Twitter: @acac_sport

Facebook: AlbertaCollegesAthleticConference

To be Canada's premiere collegiate athletic conference by developing and inspiring leadership through excellence in academics, sport & citizenship.