

Presenting the 2016-17 ACAC Women’s Basketball All-Conference Teams

LETHBRIDGE (March 1, 2017) – The Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference (ACAC) is pleased to announce the student-athletes who have been selected by the Conference Coaches to the 2016-17 Women’s Basketball All-Conference Teams. These awards were presented at the 2017 ACAC Women’s Basketball Championship banquet on March 1st, 2017 in Lethbridge Alta. hosted by the Lethbridge College Kodiaks.

Women’s North First All-Conference Team	Women’s South First All-Conference Team
Torey Hill, NAIT Sydney Hurlburt, NAIT Nakita Newman, Concordia University of Edmonton Hayley Story, University of Alberta, Augustana Moiyan Toure, Keyano College	Emma Lowry, Lethbridge College Logan Moncks, Lethbridge College Montana Romeril, St. Mary’s University Kennedy Werre, Medicine Hat College Sunder West, Lethbridge College
Women’s North Second All-Conference Team	Women’s South Second All-Conference Team
Marta, Burchett, The King’s University Danielle MacLellan, Keyano College Shania Magnusson, Lakeland College Shea-Lynn Noyes, NAIT Ann Stewart, Concordia University of Edmonton	Megan Getz, Medicine Hat College Steph Haynes, SAIT Mary-Jean Ritchie, St. Mary’s University Alicia Tan, SAIT Emily White, Red Deer College

– 30 –

About the ACAC: The ACAC is the governing body for intercollegiate athletics in Alberta. Its mission is to provide competitive collegiate sport experiences, promote academic achievement and be a leader of sport development in Canada.

For more information on the ACAC, please visit our website: www.acac.ab.ca

For additional information, contact:

Mark Kosak
 ACAC Chief Executive Officer
 403-875-7329
markk@acac.ab.ca

Twitter: @acac_sport
 Facebook: AlbertaCollegesAthleticConference

To be Canada’s premiere collegiate athletic conference by developing and inspiring leadership through excellence in academics, sport & citizenship.