

4-Yr BA in Psychology (Applied Emphasis)

EXAMPLES OF FIELD PLACEMENTS

Social/recreational programs for those with schizophrenia or bi-polar disorder.

After-school groups for elementary school children, e.g., anger management, dealing with divorce, dealing with bullying.

Administer and score intellectual assessments for a psychologist in private practice.

Support for people in contact with the legal system; help clients prepare for court appearances, give clients information about the court system.

Preschool intervention program for children who are new Canadians and/or who have speech and motor delays or other learning delays.

Transitional housing/support program for teens who are learning to live independently; visit teens, assist with budgeting, time management, educational goals.

Residential addiction recovery program for men.

Residential program for parolees; assist parole officer with reports and client support.

Assist off-campus researcher; may include literature search, summarizing research articles, entering data and statistically analyzing data, drafting a research article, interviewing research subjects, gathering information from agencies.

Work with staff at acreage clinic for animal-assisted therapy (extensive experience with horses required).

For more information contact the Admissions Office at 780.479.9220.

Concordia University of Edmonton
7128 Ada Boulevard
Edmonton, Alberta
T5B 4E4