Introducing the Ride Transit Program

Pre-approved low income adults and youth can apply for a $35/month Edmonton transit pass.

Ride Transit Program

The Ride Transit Program is an income based subsidy program designed to remove some of the financial barriers associated with using public transit. It allows eligible low-income Edmontonians to purchase an adult or youth monthly transit pass at the subsidized rate of $35 at select locations for the duration of an annual term.

Monthly passes are available on the 15th of the month prior, e.g. October 15 for November passes. Passes can be used within Edmonton on regularly scheduled Edmonton Transit Service and Disabled Adult Transit Service (DATS) for registered DATS clients.

For full details about Ride Transit (including how to apply, who qualifies, application forms, etc.) visit:

Edmonton.ca/ridetransit
