AUDITIONS

Music and Lyrics by William Finn

Book by Rachel Sheinkin
Conceived by Rebecca Feldman

Directed by Brenley Charkow
Musical Direction by Kim Cousineau
Stage Manager Kenya Bean

ABOUT THE SHOW:

An eclectic group of six mid-pubescents vie for the spelling championship of a lifetime. While candidly disclosing hilarious and touching stories from their home lives, the tweens spell their way through a series of (potentially made-up) words, hoping never to hear the soul-crushing, pout-inducing, life un-affirming "ding" of the bell that signals a spelling mistake. Six spellers enter; one speller leaves! At least the losers get a juice box. A riotous ride, complete with audience participation.

AUDITIONS:

Friday December 7th: 12-5pm & 7-9pm

Monday December 10th: 12-5pm

Tuesday December 11th: possible call-backs (12-5pm)

Sign up on the Call-board outside the Green Room

Invest in your financial well-being

START GOOD HABITS EARLY

Financial literacy is an essential life skill, just like reading and writing. Start teaching your children about money when they're young.

Follow #FLM2018 for tips and tools on how to invest in your financial well-being and visit Canada.ca/Financial-Literacy-Month.

Take advantage of family activities to give your kids lessons in managing money.

When shopping with your kids, talk about the reasons behind your purchase decisions.

<https://goo.gl/KyzETB>

Open a savings account so your child can see how the money in their account grows.

Start early to contribute to a Registered Education Savings Plan to maximize the benefits.

Teaching your children money basics is as important as helping them develop reading, writing and math skills. And it's never too early to start. Read this for tips on how to start the conversation: <https://goo.gl/DTH5aT>

Kids don't automatically pick up good money habits — we have to teach them. The good news is that teaching children about money can be easily integrated into daily family activities. Shopping, planning a trip or going to the bank are opportunities to introduce financial concepts, to explain the difference between needs and wants, and to talk about budgeting decisions.

SMOKE RESPONSIBLY

As you know, Concordia University of Edmonton's campus is now a smoke-free campus. Smoking of any kind and the use of tobacco products are not allowed anywhere on CUE property.

Understanding that smokers are now gathering in public areas, we do expect our students, faculty and staff to continue to be good neighbours and show respect to the neighbourhood and environment surrounding campus.

Please do not toss your cigarette butts into the River Valley, people's yards or on campus, but dispose of them correctly and safely in proper receptacles.

We are committed to promoting health and wellness for the whole CUE community and believe that providing you with a clean, healthy, smoke-free environment to study, learn, play, visit and live in, is one of the best ways to achieve this.

Check the website at concordia.ab.ca/smoke-free for further information, including access to the policy and quitting smoking resources.

Concordia Symphony Orchestra's second concert of the 2018-19 season features an eclectic selection of contrasting repertoire. It explores the yin and yang and our indomitable quest to find the perfect balance, from the bombastic energy of Berlioz's Symphonie fantastique to the ethereal sublimation of Light Eternal, written by Canadian composer John Estacio.

Other classic extremes include Brahms' Tragic Overture and Debussy's impressionist prelude to The Afternoon of a Faun, along with excerpts from Prokofiev's ballet Romeo and Juliet and Ravel's Piano Concerto in G.

Concordia students, faculty, and staff are each entitled to one free ticket for this concert, available from Alumni Hall 306. Further tickets are available for $20 for adults and $15 for students and seniors from Tix on the Square (780.420.1757), the Concordia Bookstore, or at the door. Special Family Admission: $40 (available at the door only).

THROUGH ANCIENT STARS
CONCORDIA CONCERT CHOIR
JORDAN VAN BIERT, CONDUCTOR

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2018, at 3:00 pm
TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
10014–81 Ave., Edmonton

The closing arc of the circle of life, full of rich and tender imagery both sensory and spiritual, threads through this portrait of a waning season. The poignance and universality of penitence and praise, comfort and peace is reflected in a mix of sacred and secular repertoire from across the Americas and Europe, including favourites by Brahms, Mendelssohn, Whitacre, Gjeilo, and Togni.

The Concert Choir, directed this year by Jordan Van Biert, is comprised of 30 auditioned singers of university age from various disciplines and interests.

Concordia students, faculty, and staff are each entitled to one free ticket for this concert, available from Alumni Hall 306. Further tickets are available for $20 for adults and $15 for students and seniors from Tix on the Square (780.420.1757), the Concordia Bookstore, or at the door.
