

Application for Aegrotat Standing

Aegrotat standing is designed to assist students who experience serious illness or injury which prevents them from taking final examinations and deferred final examinations. Applicants for Aegrotat Standing may apply only for courses in which they are registered and attending, and for a maximum of 36 credits in their entire program.

Students are responsible for submitting the Application for Aegrotat Standing form together with supporting documentation to the Registrar's Office in Student & Enrolment Services(HA120).
