ATTEMPTED BIKE THEFT – SECURITY AWARENESS

Suspect Photo

There was an attempted theft of a bicycle this afternoon fortunately a student interrupted the activity and the thieves left. It has been reported to the Edmonton Police Service. If someone looks out of place on campus please contact security (780) 479 8761 or 5555 from an internal phone. If you are not sure you can ask them if they need help, this politely let's them know they have been identified. Please review this link for useful security tips.

- As a general reminder don't leave your valuables alone, even for a minute and don't keep your valuables in a visible location.
- When locking your bicycle it is best to use a good quality Ulock through the frame of your bike to the bike stand and a good quality cable lock.
- In spring and summer we see an increase in mischief and criminal activity, if you think someone is behaving in a suspicious way please contact security. If it is a serious matter contact the police first then security.
- While we have a security guard on duty 24 hours per day seven days per week it takes the collective community to keep our campus safe.

The Creative Life and Its Challenges with composer

Allan Bevan

Ancient of days

“TO SEE WHAT IS IN THE PIT” THE CREATIVE LIFE AND ITS CHALLENGES

Friday, April 12, 4:30-5:30 pm

Concordia University of Edmonton

Canadian composer Allan Bevan speaks about his new work Ancient of Days to premiere Monday, April 15, at the Winspear Centre.

This new composition is inspired by the English writer, painter, and mystic William Blake (1757-1827), whose ideas on gender, spirituality, and the human imagination are remarkably modern. He was unafraid to plumb the depths of the human soul, to exalt creativity as humanity's true calling, and steadfastly to refuse to sacrifice his artistic ideals in the face of crushing poverty and a hostile public. His thoughts, often dense and unsettling, or in contrast deceptively simple, soar above everyday life and take us into his fascinating world of angels, devils, heroes, and innocents.

Ancient of Days presents a Blakean tableau of “contraries,” “emanations,” “spectres,” and “shadows” in a brand-new “beatific symphony” for singers, actors, and players. Was Blake an unfortunate lunatic, a visionary creator, or both? In discussing the musical materials, his compositional process, and ways in which Blake's writing is used to create an imaginary self-portrait, Bevan invites you to enter the poet's creative world, perhaps to encounter some of yourself there.

This lecture is presented in conjunction with the April 15 world premiere of Bevan's Ancient of Days, a multi-media work for vocal soloists, chorus, and orchestra, performed by the Edmonton Metropolitan Chorus and the Concordia Symphony Orchestra. Tickets for the concert available separately from the Concordia Bookstore and at the lecture.

Free but please register HERE for this talk.

USE THE CUE INVOLVED APP TO TRACK AND ADD TO YOUR CO-CURRICULAR RECORD

Grades cannot represent everything students learn during their post-secondary experience. Concordia University of Edmonton's Co-curricular Record was developed to provide students with official documentation to recognize their co-curricular achievements to prospective employers and graduate schools.

The Co-Curricular Record is a great opportunity for you to showcase your extra-curricular activities, leadership abilities, professional development, and much more.
