“Inclusion in the workforce: opportunities and challenges”

Presented by Mark Wheller and Verna Klimack from W&F WOMEN BUILDING FUTURES

“Women Building Futures is a non-profit, Alberta-based organization which has operating for 20 years. Our mission statement is to transform women’s lives. Through awareness, training, and opportunity, we prepare women for careers leading to economic prosperity. Together with our partners, we champion a more inclusive workforce. The careers that we prepare women for are trades, driving, and mining, and we develop programs which train women in these three areas.”
