

Application FAQs - Fall 2020

English Language Proficiency

Concordia can accept either one of the following test scores, which can be completed online

- TOEFL iBT® Special Home Edition- available to test takers worldwide, except mainland China
- TOEFL ITP® Plus-available for China
- Duolingo English Test- Please read more on the Duolingo web page.

Tuition Deposits

The deadline for tuition deposit payments has been extended. Once an offer of admission has been made, international students now have until June 30th, 2020 to pay the required deposit.

Final Documents

Final documents are still required. If you have an applicant who is not able to access final documents because they were not able to complete the semester or take final assessments, please encourage that applicant to wait to apply for a future term after their assessments are complete.

In cases where the applicant is able to complete final assessments but cannot access hard copies of their final documents, scans of final documents may be accepted only on a case by case basis and depending on the country in which the applicant is from. Please alert the Office of Admission if your applicant is having difficulty accessing hard copies of their final documents.

Processing Times

Please note, COVID-19 created process and service disruptions that is causing delays in application processing times. The Office of Admissions is working to process applications according to the following processing times:

- Graduate Applications: 2 weeks from the time that all required documents are received
- Undergraduate Applications: 2 weeks from the time that all required documents are received
