Raised on their family farm in rural Ontario, The Reklaws (made up of sibling duo Jenna and Stuart Walker) and their second single "Long Live the Night" not only achieved platinum-certification, but was the most streamed domestic song of all Canadian country artists in 2018, and was selected as the theme song for the CFL's Thursday Night Football for the 2018 and 2019 seasons. Their debut EP "Feels like that" was awarded the 2019 CCMA for Album of the year, and the "Feels like that" single earned them their first #1 at Canadian Country Radio and is certified gold in Canada. This year, they were also nominated for Group of the Year at the 2020 JUNO Awards marking the first time in over 20-years that a Country group was included in the category. There's no doubt that The Reklaws, who have garnered over 100 million streams to date, are poised to be Country's next superstars

Shannon Ella is the host of nationally syndicated midday radio show on Pure Country. This show airs all across Canada on 13 different iHeartRadio stations from Ontario to B.C. It features exclusive interviews with the top country stars in Canada and the U.S., behind the scenes looks at the biggest events in country music from festivals, award shows and tours across North America.
