

Scholars Countering Intersectional Racism and Oppression (SCIRO) Research Cluster
Salon Series

Join Us!

Thursday, January 14, 2021

4:00pm – 6:00pm

Virtually via Zoom

Register Here

Please join us for SCIRO's first salon series event. This event will feature discussions surrounding experiences of racism and oppression as well as ways in which institutions can move towards engaging with anti-racism and anti-oppression. Welcome remarks by Dr. Valerie Henitiuk, Vice-President Academic and Provost, Professor CUE followed with talks by Elder Philip Campiou and Dr. Asma Syed.

About the speakers:

Elder Phillip Campiou is a Traditional Woodland Cree who is originally from Driftpile First Nation, Alberta. He now resides in the Stony Plain area.

Dr. Asma Syed, Canada Research Chair in South Asian Literary and Cultural Studies in the Department of English, Kwantlen Polytechnic University and Chair of the KPU's Task Force on Antiracism.

