ENGLISH

Program Overview

3-year BA: This degree will provide you with an excellent general education as well as a solid background in the core areas of English. It's a great choice if you're planning to earn another degree or diploma in a related field such as law or education, or if you just need a Bachelor's degree to get started in your career of choice.

4-year BA: Our 4-year program allows you to study the discipline in greater depth. You'll have the opportunity to take additional senior-level courses, study a broader range of subjects, participate in more seminar-style classes, and also have the opportunity to pursue a major research project. If you're looking to gain admission to a graduate program (e.g. Master's, PhD), you'll need a 4-year degree and this is a great option.

Career Options

A Bachelor of Arts degree is one of the most flexible degrees available. You create your own career path when you tailor this program to focus on areas of personal interest. Some English degree career paths include:

| | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| Academic Researcher | Learning Programs Director |
| Communications Specialist | Lexicographer |
| Editorial Consultant | Novelist |
| Education Program Planner | Public Relations Manager |
| English Teacher | Publications Editor |
| Journalist | Speech Pathologist |

Admission Requirements

Interested? You'll need to present a 60% average, with a passing grade in the following required high school courses:

- English Language Arts 30-1
- Three subjects from Groups A, B or C*
- One subject from Group A, B, C or D

* Maximum of two subjects from Group B, each must be distinct.

Interesting Courses

ENG 390 - Graphic Literature: Delve into a rapidly rising medium with a historical and critical survey of a selection of comic books and graphic novels through the lens of publishing history, genre, and aesthetic properties.

WRI 300 - Writing (Non-Fiction): A seminar on the principles and techniques of good expository writing, including the basic analysis essay, the comparative essay, and the research essay. Workshop format with regular discussion and analysis of students' and other writers' work. Valuable to students of any discipline, but especially to English students wanting to further develop their writing skills.
