Interesting Courses

HIS221 - Rebellions and Revolutions: Rebellions and revolutions have occurred throughout human history and have resulted in major changes in political, social, economic and cultural institutions. This course is a comparative analysis of the events and ideas that have motivated important rebellions and revolutions in the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

HIS 333 - Europe in the Age of Totalitarianism: The major political and social developments that led to the rise and fall of twentieth-century totalitarian regimes in Germany, Italy, Eastern Europe, and the Soviet Union. Topics include the strategies and ideologies employed by dictatorships, and their usage of violence, surveillance, and consensus-building.

HIS 340 - Light on Europe in the "Dark Ages": Often referred to as the "Dark Ages," the period from c. 400 to c. 1000 was the period in which the Roman world was transformed into its three "heirs" that have defined the history of the West ever since: the Byzantine Empire (Eastern Europe), Western Christendom, and Islamic civilizations. This course will evaluate the transformation of late antiquity and the rise of Western Christendom in the early Middle Ages, focusing especially on the relationship between the Christian church and society.

HIS 369 - Indigenous Peoples and Canada since 1867: A course exploring the relations between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada since 1867. Topics include treaties, policies of assimilation, and Indigenous political activism.
