The University of Teacher Education Bern (PHBern) is CUE's newly established partner in Switzerland. Join us to explore the Institute for Research, Development, and Evaluation at PHBern, where research drives innovation in teacher education. Discover thematic priority programs with a special focus on Inclusive Education—its developments, challenges, and impact on schools. Engage in discussions and explore key projects shaping inclusive practices in Switzerland.

Prof. Dr. Doris Edelmann is the Head of the Institute for Research, Development, and Evaluation & Member of PHBern's Management Board. Prof. Dr. Caroline Sahli Lozano is the Head of the Inclusive Education Priority Program & Lecturer at the Institute for Special Education and the Institute for Continuing Education. Professors Edelmann and Sahli Lozano will visit CUE from May 26 to May 30, 2025, to exchange ideas and best practices in inclusive education.

Don't miss this opportunity to connect and collaborate!
