

CONVOCATION

— 2026 —

Concordia University of Edmonton is located on Indigenous lands within Treaty No. 6 territory and the homeland of the Métis Nation (District 9). The North Saskatchewan River has been a significant place for the niitsitapi (Blackfoot), denesų́liné (Dene), nakoda isga (Nakoda Sioux), nehiyawak (Cree), nahkawiniwak (Saulteaux), and otipemisiwak (Métis) since time immemorial. We honour and respect the agreements made by our ancestors to live in good relations for as long as the sun shines, the grass grows, and the river flows.

WELCOME

DR. TIM LOREMAN
PRESIDENT AND
VICE-CHANCELLOR

Welcome graduates, family, friends, and honoured guests.

On behalf of the entire Concordia University of Edmonton (CUE) community, I am pleased to welcome you to our annual convocation celebration. We gather today to celebrate the remarkable achievements of our graduating class of 2026: the individuals for whom our institution exists, and the living embodiment of why we do what we do here at CUE.

Our graduates have demonstrated courage, resilience, and dedication throughout their time here at CUE. The post-secondary environment provides a variety of new challenges for students—not all of which are academic—and our graduates have met each one with determination. This strength of character and adaptability will serve them well as they go on to accomplish things in their careers and contribute to their communities.

At CUE, success means more than just doing well in your studies. We are dedicated to inspiring good citizens, community builders, and ethical leaders. Here, what you do matters as much as how you do it. And the connections to the people we meet along the way that make that journey worthwhile.

Graduates, I am so proud of you.

Today you convocate and join a distinguished and growing community of CUE alumni! We are so excited to see the places you go and the things you will accomplish. You'll always have a place here at CUE, and we hope you stay in touch with us for years to come.

Congratulations!

OUR HISTORY

Concordia University of Edmonton (CUE) is more than an academic institution—we are a community of scholars, visionaries, and changemakers. People who are not afraid to lend a hand, ask bold questions, and make a difference.

For more than 100 years, we have gathered in the heart of Edmonton's Highlands community and committed ourselves to cultivating independent thinkers, ethical leaders, and citizens for the common good.

Founded in 1921 as Concordia College by Lutherans from the American-based Missouri Synod, the college became a degree-granting institution in 1987 before changing its name to Concordia University College of Alberta in 1995. In 2015, Concordia University College of Alberta became CUE, an inclusive, secular, post-secondary institution that offers an exceptional learning environment, world-class research centres and facilities, and a premier student experience.

Today, CUE is a vibrant and forward-thinking university.

We offer more than 50 undergraduate majors, concentrations and minors, four master's degree programs, and a doctorate degree program, in addition to several after-degree programs, graduate and undergraduate certificates and diplomas, and continuing education courses. We are known for our commitment to academic excellence in teaching and research, and we proudly welcome more than 3,500 students annually from across Canada and around the world.

From humble beginnings, CUE has evolved into a place of spirit, connection, and excellence—now stepping boldly into its second century with the promise of becoming one of Canada's preeminent small universities.

No matter what lies ahead for CUE, we will continue to nurture the spirit of community that defines our campus, and to honour the stories carried forward through generations of students, faculty, and friends.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia dates back to that which was worn by academics and clergy in European universities of the Middle Ages. The various components of academic regalia have come to symbolize levels of academic scholarship. Variations in sleeves, colours, and decorations represent degree levels and the particular preferences of individual universities. Faculty and guests with doctoral-level degrees participating in Concordia University of Edmonton (CUE)'s graduation ceremonies wear the distinctive academic gown, hood, and cap of the institution from which they graduated.

Hoods are granted to students who have earned university degrees. The hoods for CUE's graduates are lined with blue and white, CUE's official colours. The colour of the velvet edging indicates the academic discipline in which the degree has been earned:

ARTS

White

SCIENCE

Gold

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

Salmon

MANAGEMENT

Drab

EDUCATION

Blue

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Purple

The gold cord indicates a degree earned with distinction or with high distinction.

CEREMONIAL SYMBOLS

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace is a symbolic artifact that has been used throughout human history. From an emblem used to lead knights into war, to other regal purposes, the mace is now used by post-secondary institutions as a symbol of the organization's governing authority. The mace bearer leads the processional as all authorities gather for the most central ceremony of the institution—convocation. The mace, unique in design to embody CUE, rests on its stand throughout the ceremony, as our students are recognized for their earned degrees, diplomas, or certificates.

EAGLE STAFF

The Eagle Staff is the travelling symbol of UNITY among women and men in the community, and is a marker of empowerment, pride, bravery, and honour of First Nations Heritage. When the staff is carried in any sort of processional it is a reminder that Canada will never forget the legacy of Canada's First Peoples, recognizing the original traditions and ceremonies that are meant to reinforce the values of inclusivity of all Canadian people regardless of gender, race, sexuality, or ability. The Eagle Staff in general promotes equality of opportunities, welcome, respect, and value that is intended to create an environment where diverse individuals feel that they truly belong.

The feathers represent the Eagle Spirit – our display as a messenger to Creator, illustrating First Peoples in the way that provincial and territorial flags symbolize those who share this land with us. It carries the 7 Grandfather teachings of love, respect, honesty, wisdom, truth, humility, and courage, and each of the 13 Eagle feathers represent each calendar moon and the First Peoples of every province and territory. Elders, warriors, and veterans are specifically chosen as 'Eagle staff carriers,' as they display the qualities of honesty, bravery, discipline, commitment, humility, integrity, respect, and leadership for the First Peoples' traditions.

THE DRUM, TREATY 6 FLAG SONG, AND VICTORY SONG

The drum is a highly respected and sacred spirit that connects many Indigenous peoples from this territory to the spiritual world. The drum protocols and ceremonial songs that are observed by their singers are acquired through strict and traditional knowledge transfer systems. Honour songs require the highest form of respect by standing and removing any headwear.

The flag song is sung to acknowledge the spirit of the eagle staff, flags, and veterans. This is done at Convocation to respect the agreements between the sovereign Treaty 6 Nations and the Crown as well as issue the reminder that we are all gathered on Indigenous lands.

The victory song is sung to celebrate a great victory and its warriors. This song is at Convocation to acknowledge the battles faced by Indigenous students and celebrate your graduation as a modern warrior.

MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER OF ALBERTA

On behalf of the Government of Alberta, it is my pleasure to send greetings for Concordia University of Edmonton's 39th Convocation. Congratulations, graduates!

The time you've spent at Concordia has provided you with invaluable skills and knowledge to help you prepare for your future. You've made friends and great memories, and the lessons you've learned along the way – in and out of class – will always be part of who you are. I hope this is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate what you've achieved with those closest to you as you get ready for what lies ahead.

Embarking on your next adventure may seem daunting but just keep putting one foot in front of the other. Each step represents a chance to understand something new, consider your options, strengthen your resolve and move forward. Keep your goals in view and the journey will never be wasted.

Graduates like you have so much to offer your communities. I look forward to the contributions you will make, here in Alberta and elsewhere. Best wishes for continued success.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Danielle Smith". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above a horizontal line.

Honourable Danielle Smith, Premier of Alberta

HANI BARZAGAR

Hani Barzagar is a business leader and community builder whose life story and philanthropic leadership reflect the transformative power of resilience, purpose, and giving back.

Arriving in Canada with his family after being displaced by the Gulf War, Barzagar's family relied on community support, including the local food bank, to help rebuild their lives. That experience has remained central to his values and continues to shape his commitment to community helping communities.

As the President of HIBCO Construction and First General Edmonton, Barzagar has built respected property restoration and construction companies grounded in inclusive leadership, integrity, and collaboration. Under his leadership, these organizations have become trusted industry partners, responding to fires, floods, and weather-related disasters helping restore homes, businesses, and institutions during times of crisis.

Barzagar's impact extends far beyond business through sustained and deeply personal community investment. Having relied on food bank support as a newly arrived immigrant, he has maintained a long-standing commitment to Edmonton's Food Bank. Through HIBCO Construction and First General Edmonton, he has supported the Food Bank through extensive in-kind, financial, and volunteer contributions, including major renovations, accessibility improvements, and facility upgrades that strengthen its ability to serve the community.

In addition to his work with the Food Bank, Barzagar supports organizations such as the African Canadian Civic Engagement Council, Ronald McDonald House, and Sports Central. His contribution to the development of the Timbuktu Innovation Hub reflects his philanthropic approach: applying professional expertise and investing in grassroots organizations at pivotal moments of growth.

Through his journey from newcomer to accomplished business leader and philanthropist, Hani Barzagar demonstrates how success can be purposefully leveraged to strengthen communities and uplift others.

His leadership, generosity, and commitment to service embody the values celebrated by Concordia University of Edmonton.

Please join Concordia University of Edmonton in congratulating Hani Barzagar on receiving his honorary degree.

KEVIN SHERWOOD

Kevin Sherwood is an internationally recognized composer, sound designer, and creative innovator whose work has shaped one of the world's most influential entertainment franchises while making a lasting impact on Concordia University of Edmonton's artistic and academic community.

As Lead Sound Designer and Composer at Treyarch, Sherwood is best known for his music and sound design for the Call of Duty franchise, specifically its iconic Zombies mode, which has reached hundreds of millions of listeners worldwide through streaming and digital platforms.

Sherwood's relationship with CUE spans nearly a decade and includes some of the most significant artistic events in the university's history. In 2015 and again in 2024, his compositions were performed on campus in the sold-out Zombie Choral Canon concerts, with the 2024 performance drawing one of the largest audiences for an event in Tegler Hall.

Arranged for choir and performed by Concordia University of Edmonton students, these works demonstrated the depth, complexity, and musical sophistication of Sherwood's compositions and offered students a rare opportunity to engage with contemporary music of global cultural relevance.

In addition to these performances, Sherwood delivered keynote lectures at CUE conferences including Religion and Pop Culture, and Music and Mind, where he explored the philosophical, emotional, and cognitive dimensions of music. His lectures were noted for making complex musical and philosophical ideas accessible to non-specialist audiences while maintaining the highest academic and artistic standards. Students and faculty alike described his presence on campus as inspiring, generous, and deeply engaging.

Through his creative achievements, academic engagement, and meaningful contributions to Concordia University of Edmonton, Kevin Sherwood exemplifies artistic excellence, innovation, and the power of creative work to inspire learning and connection.

His influence spans music, technology, and education, embodying the spirit of inquiry and creativity celebrated by the university.

Please join Concordia University of Edmonton in congratulating Kevin Sherwood on receiving his honorary degree.

GOVERNOR GENERAL'S ACADEMIC SILVER MEDAL

MARLEA SEATTER

Graduate Marlea Seatter is honoured to receive the Governor General's Academic Silver Medal.

Growing up in rural Alberta, Marlea always knew her future would be in science, a passion sparked by her high school Biology classes. That curiosity led her to CUE, where the smaller campus felt like a natural bridge between her hometown and city life. Now, she is honoured to receive the Governor General's Academic Silver Medal, graduating with a major in Biology and a minor in Biochemistry.

During her time at CUE, Marlea has felt fortunate to foster close relationships with classmates and professors, who share her passion for science.

Having completed her Bachelor of Science at CUE, Marlea has now been accepted to her first year of Medicine at the University of Alberta.

"I hope to pursue a career as a physician specializing in women's health. I am committed to advocating for equitable, compassionate, and trauma-informed care—where every woman and gender-diverse person is seen, heard, and treated with the dignity they deserve."

Marlea would like to thank her family, particularly her husband and parents, for their unwavering support in the pursuit of her degree and her future in medicine.

Congratulations, Marlea Seatter.

GOVERNOR GENERAL'S ACADEMIC GOLD MEDAL

---

ISAAC DUHOE

Isaac Duhoe is honoured to receive the Governor General's Academic Gold Medal, graduating from the Master of Information Systems Security Management program.

With a background spanning telecom, fintech, and information security, Isaac had already seen firsthand the value of keeping digital systems safe and resilient. As COVID-19 accelerated the world's move online and AI became publicly accessible, he recognized the landscape was shifting and he wanted to be equipped to meet it. That drive brought him from Ghana to Concordia University of Edmonton.

"I believed the course design from CUE was the best fit for my aspirations. It encompassed all the main areas in which I intended to develop my skills, grow my career path and better serve the fast-paced technology adoption drive growing across Africa and the world."

The course curriculum, especially the capstone project, alongside the close-knit student community at CUE, ensured that Isaac's initial impressions of the university translated into a genuine lived reality.

He also found a sense of belonging, noting that Alberta's multicultural and welcoming community reminded him of home.

Looking ahead, Isaac is committed to ensuring that information security is treated not as an afterthought, but as a foundational ingredient in the delivery of services that benefit society. He also looks forward to reuniting with his family after time spent apart in pursuit of his degree.

Isaac would like to thank God, his family, professors, classmates, and the broader community for their support and for being part of this chapter of his story.

Congratulations, Isaac Duhoe.
